

NEFF RETURNED GOODS POLICY

RETURNED GOODS

Goods may not be returned without NEFF's consent. NEFF will accept returns within 60 days of purchase date for stock items within forecasted quantities with no restock charge. If the product is non-stock or built-to-order the return is subject to the return policy and restock fee of the manufacturer. Material must be in first class, saleable condition, returned prepaid in its original container and subject to inspection upon receipt by NEFF. When goods are returned because of NEFF's error, we will rectify the issue cheerfully and promptly without expense to the customer. If the cause is not NEFF's suppliers, or NEFF, we will do everything possible to minimize expense, however, we reserve the right to require a nominal handling and restocking charge. We cannot accept material that has been fabricated to customer's specifications. Effective April 3rd, 2020, any returns in excess of $1,000 dollars, that are not attributable to NEFF error and without an associated restock charge, are subject to the review and discretion of NEFF Executive Management.

Quoted prices and seller's prices do not include any occupational, sales or use taxes or charges now imposed or hereafter to enacted by Federal, State, or Local Governments. Any such taxes or charges levied on or collectible by the Companies shall be added to the seller's price in effect at the time of shipment. Failure by the Companies to bill such taxes or charges shall not relieve the purchaser from the obligation to pay.

We are not liable for loss or damage caused by contingencies beyond NEFF's control that may cause delay in delivery.
